Mike and I wanted to write and let you know that Wootsie passed away without pain and peacefully on October 26 at 3 pm.

After an amazingly interesting vibrant life, she quietly slipped away. Her 94 year old heart had just worn out.

Wootsie's life was full and happy. She lived on three continents, always looking forward to the next posting, the next language to learn, the next adventure.

The friends she made during her life truly enriched her. Thank you so much for being a part of it!

Wootsie wished to have no service and be buried with her husband Tom at Rosecranz Cemetery in Point Loma, San Diego. Burial will be private at a later date.

Please celebrate her life in your own way, perhaps by raising a glass of wine, taking a walk among Torrey pines, or winning a particularly competitive game of bridge.
